

THURSDAYS AT FOUR

Oral History: Opening the Kitchen Door
Gayle Morrison discusses her latest work

An extraordinary life, death, and burial: Jerry "Hog" Daniels died in Bangkok under questionable circumstances. He had been a CIA case officer to General Vang Pao during the "secret war" in Laos, and later was responsible for resettling Hmong war refugees to the U.S. In her latest work, author and former refugee services worker, Gayle L. Morrison, uses oral history and the framework of Daniels' three-day Hmong funeral ceremony in Missoula, Montana, to examine the life of "one of the shining lights" of the Vietnam War era.

Thursday, October 3, 4:00 p.m.
125 Nolte Center, 315 Pillsbury Drive S.E.

Free and open to the public; beverages will be served.
Videos of our presentations are available at ias.umn.edu/programs/ias-videos

( This is also the keynote presentation for the Hmong Across Borders Conference: October 4-5, Cowles Auditorium, Humphrey School of Public Affairs, 301 19th Ave. S. )