Madison’s Asian American Media Spotlight

OPERATION
P.O.P.C.O.R.N.

Saturday Oct. 10, 7pm — 9pm
Cinematheque, Vilas 4070 (821 University Ave, 4th Floor)
Join us for the Wisconsin premiere of this new documentary!

Brought to you by the UW-Madison Asian American Studies Program
Followed by Q&A with Director David Grabias

This film tells the epic story of a Hmong American community leader who was arrested by the FBI along with 10 other Hmong elders, and accused of plotting to buy weapons so they could return to Laos and overthrow the government there.

Brought to you by:
The Cinematheque, WUD Films, the Asian-Pacific American Law Students Association/South Asian Law Students Association (APALSA SALSA), the Hmong American Student Association (HASA), The Hmong Studies Consortium, the Asian American Student Union (AASU), The Wisconsin Organization for Asian Americans (WOAA), Office of the Vice Provost and Chief Diversity Officer (OVPCEO) and the Division of Diversity, Equity, and Educational Achievement (DDEEA), Humanities Without Walls Global Midwest, and Science and Technology Studies

For more information:
Dr. Lori Kido Lopez  |  6134 Vilas
LKLopez@wisc.edu